source of breath to all things breath-ing, life in whom all lives be - gin.

2

Praise the Spirit, close companion

by a still small voice conveys.

3 Women’s voices

Praise the Spirit, who enlightened

Pray we then, O Lord the Spirit,

we, too, set the world alight.

THE FIRST READING

1 Chronicles 16.7-13

Read by the Revd Dr David Cole, former Chairperson of the Editorial Committee of Australian Hymn Book Pty Ltd

A reading from the First Book of Chronicles.

Then on that day David first appointed the singing of praises to the Lord by Asaph and his kindred.

O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name, make known his deeds among the peoples. Sing to him, sing praises to him, tell of all his wonderful works. Glory in his holy name; let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice. Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his presence continually. Remember the wonderful works he has done, his miracles, and the judgements he uttered, O offspring of his servant Israel, children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

Here ends the reading.

Please remain seated and repeat the antiphon after the cantor, then as indicated

PSALM 102.15-16, 18-22

Let all the peo-ples praise you, O Lord, let all the peo - ples praise you:
let all the peo-ples praise you, O Lord, let all the peo - ples praise you.

Nations shall fear the name of the Lord, and all the rulers of earth your glory, when the Lord shall build Zion again, coming in glory. Alleluia. Response

Let this be written for ages to come, peoples unborn may praise the Lord, who has come down from the sanctuary on high to set the prisoners free. Alleluia. Response

Zion shall hear the name of the Lord, and God's praise in the heart of the city. Peoples and nations shall gather to praise, worshipping God our Lord: Alleluia. Response

*The Psalms. A New Translation (1989)
Melody: Giovanni Giacomo Gastoldi (c.1554-1609)
ad. Christopher Willcock (b.1947)
Reproduced from Together in Song 63 with permission*

THE SECOND READING

Colossians 3.1-5,9-11

Read by Susan Hawley, Lay Clark

A reading from the letter to the Colossians.

So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory.

Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Here ends the reading.

Please remain seated and join in as you're able with the Samoan Choir from St John's Uniting Church, Essendon, as they sing

The St John's Samoan Choir was commissioned in 2006 by the Revd Dr Wes Campbell as leading musicians of the St John's congregation. Its members are passionate about singing original Samoan hymns from the Samoan hymn book O pese ma vi'iga I lo tatou Atua (Uniting Church Press, Melbourne), which consists of hymns from the Congregational and Methodist churches in Samoa. For many of the singers, these hymns highlight special memories from their childhood in Samoa, and embody their homeland faith experience. The Choir has sung at most Sunday morning worship services at St John's since its commissioning, and its members are honoured to have been invited to sing today for the Launch of The Australian Hymn Association.

THE THIRD READING

Romans 6.1-11

Read by the Revd Dr D'Arcy Wood, sometime Chairperson of Australian Hymn Book Pty Ltd

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans.

What then are we to say? Should we continue in sin in order that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin go on living in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Here ends the reading.

Please stand to sing

THE OFFERTORY HYMN

*St Paul's Cathedral relies entirely on your gift. Please be generous.
You can also donate online via our website www.cathedral.org.au/donate or by EFT BSB: 083-088, Account: 53-728-8315*

1 Come down, O Love di - vine, seek now this soul of mine, and vi-sit it with your own ar-dour glow-ing; O Com-for-ter, draw near, with-in my heart ap - pear, and kin-dle it, your ho-ly flame be - stow-ing.

<sup>2</sup>
There let it freely burn till earthly passions turn to dust and ashes
in its heat consuming;
and let your glorious light
shine ever on my sight,
and clothe me round,
the while my path illuming.

<sup>3</sup>
Let holy charity
my outer garment be,
and lowliness become
my inner clothing:
true lowliness of heart,
which takes the humbler part,
and for its own shortcomings
weeps with loathing.

<sup>4</sup>
And so the yearning strong,
with which the soul will long,
shall far outpass the power of human telling;
for none can guess its grace
till we become the place in which the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.

Bianco da Siena (d.1434), tr. Richard Frederick Littledale (1833-90) alt.
Together in Song 398

Please kneel or sit for the prayers

THE PRAYERS

Led by The Revd Canon Heather Patacca, Precentor

THE CHORISTERS' PRAYER

Bless, O Lord, us your servants who minister in your temple.
Grant that what we sing with our lips we may believe in our hearts, and what we believe in our hearts we may show forth in our lives.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Please be seated for the anthem

ANTHEM

Stir into flame, Christopher Willcock

Stir into flame the gift of God that is within you by the laying on of hands.
Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you received, living by the faith and love which are in Christ Jesus.
Guard the treasure put into your charge, with the help of the Holy Spirit dwelling within us.

2 Timothy 1.6, 13-14

each in our own language,

Notre Père..., Padre nuestro..., Vater unser..., Πάτερ ἡμῶν..., 天の父よ ..., हे हमारे स्वरगिक पिता..., Bapa kami..., E to matou Matua..., 我們在天上的父 ...,
Ama namin..., Our Father who art ..., ،...باپ ہمارے اے...، ،...الَّذِي أَبَانَا...

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

THE HYMN

Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire,
